

Greenville County Bird Club Trip Report

- Dates: September 4, 2010
- Locations: Walhalla Fish Hatchery, Oconee County, SC
- Leader: Jeff Click
- Comments: 13 GCBC members participated.

The group started with the East Fork trail at the Walhalla Fish Hatchery, and then continued with the hatchery itself. We moved on to walk a section of the Foothills Trail where it crosses Fish Hatchery Road, and then to a section of the Chattooga Trail at Burrell's Ford Road. While the birding was frustratingly slow, the scenery was great. The highlight of the trip was a hooded warbler that sat out in the open for about 10 minutes preening itself in clear view.
